February 2014 Newsletter

Dear Members,

We had a great start to 2014 with our trivia quiz and Fête des Rois celebration. Thanks to Cheryl Thingvold and Deanna Scheffer for creating this years' brain teasing questions. The trivia quiz is on our site on the newsletters page if you want to test yourself.

Thanks to all those who came out for La Chandeleur, Lucie Little made crêpes and gave us a great presentation on Brittany. It is always a pleasure to see Lucie and to eat her delicious crêpes. Please see the accompanying attachment for proverbs in French about La Chandeleur and a recipe for crêpes. If you try out the recipe, please send us your photos and we will put them on our website – successes and failures!

Trip to France - 2014 marks the 30th anniversary of the twinning between Jacksonville and Nantes through the Sister Cities program.

In May, Nantes hosts “Les Floralties”, a world-renowned flower show that takes place every 4 years - <http://www.comite-des-floralities.com/eng> (the site language can be changed to French). What a great time to visit Nantes! We can visit the chateaux, go to Les Floralties, see the stone circles, do some wine tasting, and even take some language classes. This trip is in the planning stages, excursions can be tailored to suit our needs, and participants can visit other places too. Dates have not yet been fixed. We need at least 10 people to get competitive pricing on flights and hotels. Our secretary, Penny, will be sending an email out with ballpark figures and dates in the next couple of weeks. Please email us at afjax@aol.com to let us know if you would be interested so we can get a rough idea of a headcount.

French speaking events – we have introduced French only speaking events to our calendar this month. Everyone is welcome to attend but please be aware that all discussion will be in French.

Congratulations to AFJax member Dr. Joanne Davis who was awarded “les palmes académiques” by our new consul general in Miami, M. Philippe Létrilliart, on behalf of the French government.
